...TEXT: writer was a personnel officer in the Britannia Assembly Hall of what was then Bristol Aircraft Ltd. The business strategy was quite clear. The company had to manufacture, sell and deliver Britannia aircraft (the first large turbo-prop aircraft) faster than the competition - Lockheed with its Electra and De Havilland with the Comet. To...firms which had changed their piecework systems, and setting up seminars with experts. The educational aim of the project was to develop a wider appreciation of management issues and approaches and an understanding of the processes of modifying and diagnosing management problems. The...

...top management to new ideas about how to run the payment-by-results scheme. The team reported to the works director (an ex- rate fixer) and was aware that, realistically, he was not going to be persuaded to change

...although it had clearly been demonstrated that it resulted in continuous wage drift. However, the team was able forcefully to impress on him the need to review rate fixing methods and check wage drift, and action was accordingly taken. The point of reflecting...

ABSTRACT:

An informal forum for settling government contract disputes is expected to be faster than formal procedures. The Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) procedure, as recommended by the Defense Advisory Panel on Government Industry Relations, would be a non-binding trial before a moderator rather than a judge . Each side would be able to present its case without interruption, cross-examination, legal challenge...
